14. (C) Over the past several months, the military Humanitarian Assistance Coordination Center (HACC) based in the Embassy has, acting on e-mail instructions from the senior advisor to the Iraqi Foreign Ministry in Baghdad and in cooperation with the remnants of the Iraqi Embassy in Amman, been collecting blank Iraqi passports and passport machines. The Iraqi MFA instructed its embassies around the world to forward blank passports to the Iraqi Embassy in Amman. The Iraqi MFA senior advisor has generally instructed the HACC to collect the passports, machines, foils, and other related items from the Iraqi Embassy, destroy ordinary passports (keeping a careful log), and forward to the MFA in Baghdad service and diplomatic passports. The HACC officer who was responsible for this function has departed, and this function has fallen onto the Embassy to perform.
